

SATURDAY

Gallery Crawl promises good art, better wine

This month's First Saturday Gallery Crawl — in which downtown art galleries open their doors from 6 to 9 p.m. Saturday for an evening of coordinated openings and receptions — should be a festive occasion.

Besides a diverse and strong slate of shows, including Kaaren Hirschowitz Engel at

Twist Art Gallery (73 Arcade) and Chris Scarborough and Marcus Kenney at TAG Art Gallery (237 Fifth Ave. N.), Downtown Presbyterian Church (154 Fifth Ave. N.) will hold its monthly "Art-Luck" potluck dinner and art show. Adding further excitement is the news the 11 galleries and studios in the downtown Arcade are celebrating the announcement of Lipman Brothers beverage distributor as an official sponsor for their Art at the Arcade program. What does that mean? Better wine at the opening receptions. See www.artatthearcade.com.

—JONATHAN MARX,
STAFF WRITER

COURTESY OF THE ARTIST

On Saturday, Twist Art Gallery opens an exhibit of works in a variety of media by Nashville artist Kaaren Hirschowitz Engel.

CONTACT US

Linda Zettler, Entertainment Editor, 259-8232
Brian Belt, Copy Editor, 259-8212